

True or False

- 1- There were 559 members of the Guinea Pig Club in total.
- 2- McIndoe bought a small plot of land on Mount Kilimanjaro after the war.
- 3- Marks and Spencer advertised in the Guinea Pig newsletter.
- 4- In his spare time, McIndoe 'The Maestro' was a conductor.
- 5- Dame Vera Lynn visited some members of the Guinea Pig club while they were in hospital.
- 6- When the Queen Victoria Hospital was built on Holtye Road it only had 24 beds.
- 7- The Guinea Pig Club annual reunion became known as the "Forgotten Weekend".
- 8- McIndoe's nickname was The Chief.
- 9- Guinea pigs weren't just British, they came from all over the world, including South America.